

Raising Awareness About Violence Against Women—One Blanket at a Time

A Nota Bene Foundation Initiative

Crafted for Courage, weaves hope and resilience into every stitch, raising awareness about violence against women through a powerful public art installation.

Join us on Saturday May 10, 2025 at
Esplanade Place Ville Marie from 9 AM – 5 PM

On this day, Esplanade PVM will transform into a tapestry of solidarity. Handmade blankets will tell stories of support and empowerment, symbolizing the strength of survivors and the compassion of those who stand with them.

Visitors can make a donation for a blanket, with proceeds benefiting:

Contact us: # 514-825-0005 (NORI) | email: notabenefoundation@gmail.com

 @craftedforcourage |  @craftedforcourage | www.notabenecourage.ca

How to get involved

-  Knit or Crochet 50 x 50 cm squares in any color or design. Each square symbolizes a personal and collective statement of unity, solidarity and support for those affected by violence.
-  Assemble Squares into Blankets. Volunteers are invited to assist in assembling the squares beginning February 2025.
-  Volunteer at the Event. Roles include event setup, welcoming guests, coordinating blanket displays, and after event wrap-up.

Scan/Click the QR Code to Register and Join Today!

Donate today!